Occupation: Retired primary school teacher

Goals

- To preserve personal memories of disappearing neighbourhood spaces
- To share lived experiences with younger generations
- To ensure her memories are not lost when she is no longer able to tell them
- To feel that her life experience has cultural value

Technology

Typing
Voice Input
Recall Ability
Browsing Web/App

Needs

- A very low technical barrier to contribution
- Voice-based input rather than text-heavy forms
- Gentle prompts to help structure her storytelling
- Clear reassurance about privacy and how her data is used

Pain Points

- Finds typing slow and tiring
- Feels intimidated by unfamiliar apps
- Worries her stories are “not important enough”
- Afraid of making mistakes or sharing something accidentally
